OLD ENGLAND.

By ARGUS CENTOCULI, Inſpector-General of Great-Britain.

SATURDAY, APRIL 15, 1749. [N°. 259.]

Two happy Days in Marriage are allow'd,
A Wife in Wedding Sheets and in a Shroud:
How then can Wedlock-State be thought accurſt,
When the laſt Day's as happy as the firſt.

THE following Letter is put into my Hands by a Gentleman who vouches for it's Genuineſs. It was wrote by a Perſon of Conſideration and ſome Dignity in his Country, to a poor, indigent, old Woman, whoſe Spittle and Prayers the Roman Catholics, in the North-Weſt Parts of England, ſet up as Univerſal Medicines, to heal all Sorts of Diſtempers whatſoever, affecting human kind, and never known to have failed. The ſpreading Fame of this miraculous Doctreſs, and her cheap Medicine, reached the Ears of all Sorts and Condition of People thro' the Nation, and even the Minds of ſo many, as to render the poor Creature very uneaſy by their Followings, in order to be ſpit upon. This Occurrence often put me in Mind of the poor Woodman in the Farce of the Mock-Doctor, who was cudgelled into the Faculty and Knowledge of Medicine at once; and it ſeems this poor Woman was as unwilling as the Woodman to preſcribe, 'till ſhe was forced to adapt the Conceit of other People, and do as they entreated her. Thus many a good old Woman was formerly overpowered by the Opinion of others, to believe and confeſs herſelf a Witch. I ſhould not have wondered, if the Infatuation of Mrs. Boſtock's Power of healing had run only among the credulous Vulgar, who love to deceive and be deceived; but to find People of Education and good Senſe join in the public Cry, is ſomewhat ſo aſtoniſhing, as there is no accounting for it in a rational Way, without recurring to the Operations of an Enthuſiaſtic Brain. But I give the Letter in the Words I received it.

To Mrs. Boſtock at Namptwich, Cheſhire.

MADAM,

BEING very well informed by various Accounts, both public and private, that you have performed ſeveral wonderful Cures, even when Phyſicians have failed; and that you do it by the Force and Efficacy of your Prayers moſtly, if not altogether, the outward Means you uſe being generally ſuppoſed to be inadequate to the Effects produced;—I cannot but look upon ſuch Operations to be miraculous; and if ſo, why may not an infinitely good and gracious God enable you to raiſe the Dead, as well as heal the Sick, give Sight to the Blind, and Hearing to the Deaf? For ſince he is pleaſed to hear your Prayers in ſome Caſes ſo beneficial to Mankind, there is the ſame Reaſon to expect it in others, and conſequently in that I have particularly mentioned, namely, raiſing the Dead. Now, as I have lately loſt a Wife whom I moſt dearly loved, my Children one of the beſt of Stepmothers, all her near Relations a Friend whom they greatly eſteemed, and the Poor a charitable Benefactreſs; I entreat you, for God Almighty's Sake, that you will be ſo good as to come here, if your actual Preſence is abſolutely requiſite; if not, that you will offer up your Prayers to the Throne of Grace on my Behalf, that God would vouchſafe to raiſe my poor departed Wife Dame *E P from the Dead. This is one of the greateſt Acts of Charity you can poſſibly do, for my Heart is ready to burſt with Grief at the Conſideration of ſo great a Loſs. This would be doing myſelf and all her Relations and Friends ſuch an extraordinary Kindneſs, as would neceſſarily engage our daily Prayers for your Preſervation, as the leaſt Gratuity we could make you for ſo great a Benefit; tho' were any other compatible with the Nature of the Thing, and durſt we offer or you accept, we ſhould think nothing too much to give, to the utmoſt of our Abilities; but I ſuppoſe this is not lawful even to attempt, and I wiſh that the bare Mention of it is not offenſive both to God and you. If your immediate Preſence is abſolutely neceſſary, pray let me know it at the Return of the Poſt, that I may ſend a Coach and Six and Servants to attend you here, with Orders to defray your Expences in a Manner moſt ſuitable to your own Deſire; or if your Prayers will be as effectual at the Diſtance you are from me, pray ſignify the ſame in a Letter directed by way of London, to

Good MADAM,
Your unfortunate and afflicted Petitioner,
and humble Servant,

Dec. 1, 1748. ———.

P. S. God Almighty proſper this your Undertaking, and all others intended for the Benefit of Mankind, and may he long continue ſuch an uſeful Perſon upon Earth, and afterwards crown you with eternal Glory in the Kingdom of Heaven, for Jeſus Chriſt's Sake. Amen.

I make no doubt but a ludicrous Conſtruction of this Letter will occur to the Wags of the Town, who will be more merry than wiſe upon the Subject. All the old Jokes upon Matrimony will be revived, and an Emulation for coining new ones will prevail among our Smatterers in Wit. We ſhall have them ſay, That a dead Wife is much better than a living one; and that many a good Man would be glad to make the Gentleman a Compliment of his Wife to repair his Loſs, if Wives were transferrable; or perhaps to exchange a living for his dead Wife. I know very well, that our Libertines will wonder at the Gentleman's Singularity, in being ſo very ſollicitous to raiſe what moſt Men of Faſhion would give half their Worth to lay; and that if Mrs. Boſtock's Spittle could operate in this laſt Way, ſhe would have much more Buſineſs upon her Hands, tho' ſhe might endanger her Health by ſpitting herſelf into a Conſumption in a little Time. But as I apprehend, that our old Batchelors will be the ſevereſt on this Occaſion, I muſt tell them, with Shakeſpear in Macbeth, you have no Wife to loſe, and conſequently are no competent Judges of the Loſs of a good Wife. As a Parody on what Dryden ſays of the Pleaſure in being mad, I ſay, There is a Pleaſure in being married which none but married Men know. I muſt therefore warn our Batchelors to forbear their Invectives againſt a State they are wholly ignorant of, and meaſure only from outward Appearances, extravagantly enlarged and overſtrained by a fertile Imagination. Let them read Milton's Praiſe of conjugal Love, and reſiſt if they can.

Hail, wedded Love! miſterious Law, true Source
Of Human Offſpring, ſole Propriety
In Paradiſe of all Things common elſe;
By thee, adulterous Luſt was driven from Men
Among the beſtial Herds to range; by thee,
Founded in Reaſon, loyal, juſt and pure,
Relations dear, and all the Charities
Of Father, Son and Brother firſt were known:
Far be it, that I ſhould write thee Sin or Blame,
Or think thee unbefitting holieſt Place;
Perpetual Fountain of domeſtic Sweets,
Whoſe Bed is undefil'd and chaſte pronounc'd,
Preſent, or paſt, as Saints and Patriarchs us'd,
Here Love his golden Shafts employs, here lights
His conſtant Lamp, and waves his Purple-Wings,
Reigns here and revels; not in the bought Smiles
Of Harlots, loveleſs, joyleſs, unindear'd,
Caſual Fruition; not in Court-Amours,
Mix'd Dance, or wanton Maſque, or Midnight Ball,
Or Serenade, which the ſtarv'd Lover ſings
To his proud Fair beſt quitted with Diſdain.

But one can't eaſily reſolve in what Light to conſider this extraordinary Letter, as the Writer does in no wiſe appear to be an ignorant Perſon, but manifeſtly in the oppoſite Claſs; ſince a Strain of good Senſe, as well as good Argument, run thro' the whole Letter, tho' conducted on wrong Principles. That nothing is impoſſible to God is a divine Maxim, and an Attempt to purchaſe the Spirit we find ſeverely puniſhed in the Caſe of Simon Magus in the Goſpel. Upon theſe Topics the Gentleman ſeems to ground his Application and Hopes of Succeſs. 'Tis no bad Reaſoning to conclude, and conſequently believe, that a Perſon favoured by Heaven one way, may be full further enabled to do Good among Mankind. Diſeaſes may be healed by human Means ſo long as Breath remains in the Patient, but when that is gone nothing but ſupernatural Power can reſtore it. This, we read in the New Teſtament, hath been frequently done;—but this we are not to expect in theſe Days, for we are taught that Miracles have ceaſed. I will not enter into the Merits of the Diſpute which is now on foot, in relation to Miracles, further than to ſay with Sir Roger de Coverley, that much may be ſaid on both Sides; which I apprehend is all the Satisfaction we are to expect from the Debates of the learned Pens engaged in the Queſtion.

If we ſhould allow the Gentleman a Share of good Senſe, we muſt at the ſame Time give up his Judgment, which ſeems to have been impaired from the melancholy Contemplation of his Loſs working upon a diſordered Imagination, and Miſapplication of what he had read, into a State of Enthuſiaſm; for what is there that the jaundiced Eye of Enthuſiaſm will not ſee, it's fanciful Ear not hear, or it's fanatical Mind not conceive? It gives us ocular Demonſtration, in the Day Time, of Armies drawn up in Battalia in the Air, their Approach and Evolutions; and of Ghoſts and Spectres in the Night. It attacks us auricularly in various Sounds and often in diſtinct Words. It takes Riſe from Contemplation, and is propagated by our Hopes and Fears. It was this Fever of the Brain, or Frenzy of the Mind, that agitated the murderous Hand of Jacques Clement, to ſtab the gallant Henry IV. of France, and worked up the Printer-Boy Matthews into a Reſolution to murder our late King George I. Tho' it moſtly operates upon weak Minds, yet we find it often more or leſs in Poſſeſſion of the ſtrongeſt. It proceeds ſometimes from Pride of Heart and Self-Conceit. Hence Don Quixot fancied himſelf the Mirror of Chivalry; and hence the celebrated Don Tom del Vagary ſet up for a Stateſman.

Lingwood, a Bankrupt, was Plaintiff, and Mr. John Bland, an eminent Goldſmith and Banker, was Defendant; the Caſe being thus: The Bankrupt from Time to Time had lodged Money with the Banker, and took his Notes from the Year 1742 to 1748; which the Aſſignee's Counſel inſiſted belonged to the Bankrupt's Eſtate: But ſeveral Aldermen and others, who are Bankers, explaining to the Court how dangerous it would be to credit, if they were liable to repay Money that they gave their Notes for to Perſons that left Money with them, not knowing whether they were Bankrupts, the Jury brought in a Verdict for the Defendant.

The former went in an open Landau, attended by the Rev. IV. Of Hatred in Subjects, and how a Prince may render himself odious
V. Of Contempt, and what renders a Prince contemptible.
VI Concerning the different Species of Change that Kingdoms are subject to; and why one Sort of Change takes Place sooner than another, &c. —— Printed by Authority at Turin.

The most wonderful cleansing and strengthning Drops for all Sorts of Gleets, and Seminal Weaknesses and Imbecilities of the Generative Parts and Faculties, preventing Miscarriages in Women; and to cleanse and strengthen the Reins, Kidnies and Bladder, cure weak Backs, Stranguries, Gravel, and Stoppage of the Urine, and for which it has gained such Repute, that near 20000 Bottles have been sold since April 1734, that they were first publish'd.

THESE Incomparable Drops, which for the abovesaid Disorders are not to be equall'd in the whole Art of Medicines were prescrib'd by the late Dr. Ratcliffe, for a certain noble Lord, who for a long Time had been vex'd with an old obstinate Gleet and Weakness, of which he was cured by them in a few Days, beyond all Expectation, after he had been harrass'd with Electuaries, Bolusses, Pills, Potions, Injections, and a hundred other Medicines, for many Months together in vain.

The Apothecary who prepared them for him according to the Doctor's Prescription (which he has still upon his File) has made Use of them ever since to Numbers of People in the very worst of Gleets, seminal and genital Imbecilities and Infertilities, Pains in the Back and Reins, Disorders of the Urine and Gravel, &c. with the utmost Success and Safety; as also in all Weaknesses from Strains, as well as Venereal Relicts, excessive Coition, Self Pollution, seminal Emissions in Sleep, Falls, Blows, Wrenches, and the like, in both Sexes.

And as they have never once failed him, even in Cases thought to be incurable, he now, for general Good, has made them publick: And that the meaner Sort of People might partake of the Benefit of so divine a Remedy as well as the Rich, he has put them up in Bottles of but 5s. 6d each, tho' for the Excellency of their Effects they are worth their Weight in Gold, more especially as one Bottle of them generally Cures, even in the most draining Gleets, and grievous Relaxations and Weaknesses of the Seminals and Genitals, as also of the Back and Reins, that are.

Nor can there be prepared, by any Art or Skill, a more cleansing and healing, or a more strengthening and invigorating Medicine, or one that can more effectually cure Impotency, or promote Fertility, than this, as every one that but once tries it will say, by their soon finding the Difference between this and other Remedies; for it will do more in one Day towards restoring in these Weaknesses than any others can in ten and is of so corroborating a Nature that it may be entirely rely'd upon for curing perfectly and firmly, without Fear of Relapse, even in the tendereſt Constitutions, which can hardly be said of any other Medicine; and it is withal so elegantly pleasant to the Palate, and so agreeable to the Stomach that the nicest Person is delighted with it.

Mr. West, Goldsmith, who us'd to sell these Drops being dead, they are now Sold only by his Son in Law, Mr. Johnson a Baker, at the Seven Stars, in Vere-street, near Clare-Market, sealed up, with Directions, for any Messenger upon asking only for a Bottle of Drops and paying 2s 6d.

GLEETS and SEMINAL WEAKNESSES,

SO destructive to the Constitution, and ruinous not only to the unhappy Individual labouring under them, by draining away the Radical Moisture or very Essence of Life, and inducing Consumptions, Nervous Disorders, &c. but to Posterity also, inasmuch as those afflicted with such Gleetings, if not wholy disabled, as very many are, from propagating their Species, are yet render'd incapable of begetting any other than puny, miserable, and short-liv'd Issue.

These wasting Gleetings, occasion'd by Self-pollution, excessive Venery, severe Purging for Venereal Injuries, or by violent Strains, &c. and which have been deem'd by almost all Physicians and Surgeons to be so very difficult to overcome, are now so certainly known to be directly, and in a manner at once perfectly cur'd by the Grand Restrictive Balsamick Electuary, that no one, how bad soever, need despair of being entirely set to Rights by it in a few Days.

It is from this its most extraordinary Efficacy, that so many Practitioners in Town and Country now send for it for their Patients, as finding it to be the only sure and infallible Remedy that can be safely rely'd upon in those Cases. The Price of this Grand Medicine is 6s. a Pot, seal'd up, with a Book of Instructions, highly necessary to be read by all Persons whoever were afflicted with any Disorder of the Seminal Vessels or neighbouring Parts.

Note, This fam'd Balsamic Electuary is now, by the Author's Appointment, to be had only at Mr. Eglinton's (Mr. Radford being deceased) at the Golden Pair of Spectacles against the East-End of the New Church in the Strand, London. Ask only for a 6s. Pot of Balsamic Electuary. No Letters answer'd unless Post-paid.

ANTI-SIPHYLICON.

THE only short and most infallible CURE in the Universe for the Venereal Disease from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and to as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks, on one Hand, or a seminal Gleet, or Weakness, to happen on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Illness, attended with nocturnal Pains, universal Breakings-out, and all other the most exasperated Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inungation, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to bespeak it the only apposite Remedy, or true Venereal Antidote in the World, and this some Thousands have, to their great Joy, experienced.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disorder, nor requires Confinement, but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplished, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury may, by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it, Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and effectual Manner.

All such, likewise, as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may, by a few Doses of it, entirely free themselves from all Suspicions of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and, on that Account, in all Scorbutick, Scrophulous, and even Leprous Eruptions, or Fouleſſes of the Skin, or glandulous Swellings, and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose than any other Medicine, yet known, can by ten.

The Price of this most noble Anti-Siphylicon is but six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient, in most Cases, to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which all Persons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is entirely rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, This Grand Anti-Siphylicon is now, by the Author's Appointment, to be had only at Mr. Eglinton's (Mr. Radford being deceased) at the Golden Pair of Spectacles against the East-End of the New Church in the Strand, London. Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy. No Letters answer'd, unless Post-paid.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages, (whence proceed Head-Achs, Vapours, and other Indispositions) no Bitters, nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, insomuch that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy, in all its Shapes and Appearances they assuredly and directly cure the Green-Sickness in Virgins, Worms, of all Kinds, in Young or Old, and almost all other Chronick Diseases, which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Diseases.

To Persons of either Sex,
Afflicted with any Species of the PALSY, or other Nervous Decays.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES, PALSIES, and PARALYTICK DISORDERS so frequent as of late they have been, nor have the usual Remedies been found adequate to those pernicious Distempers: This occasioned a Physician, who employed his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palsy, and all other Nervous Complaints now reigning, which, after he had experienced on vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and always with surprizing Success even as infallibly to cure by it the Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Disorders, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, that those labouring under these miserable Ailments might know where to meet with a safe and most certain Cure, which it accomplishes in so short a Time, and with such Ease and Pleasure (a few Drops of it being a Dose, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and Bowels) as is almost incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only demonstrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients soon finds all Numbness, Deadness, and shaking, or Resolution of the Nerves, as well as all convulsive, cramp-like, or painful Contractions of them, vanish and return no more, and this, though these Diseases have been of many Years standing, and whether occasioned by long Illness, fast Living, hard drinking, or any other Cause; for it performs all that can be wished for in Nervous Cases, creates an Appetite, expells Wind, rectifies the Digestion, occasions laudable Chyle, attenuates the Blood and Juices, causes a free and regular Circulation of 'em thro' the Capillary Vessels, revives and increases the Spirits, warms, comforts, strengthens, and replenishes the Brain and whole Nervous System, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs restored to their priftine Steadiness and Strength; and the Palsy and all Paralytick Disorders and Nervous Decays suddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themselves, and all about them.

This sovereign and incomparable Elixir is permitted to be sold only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Crofs Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, London, at 5s. 6d. a Bottle, with printed Directions at large.

For the Immediate Cure of BARRENNESS in WOMEN tho' of many Years Continuance, and proceeding from what Cause soever,

And also of IMPOTENCY in MEN, however occasion'd, or of ever so long Standing,

The Famous and Ineftimable PROLIFICK ELIXIR.

The highest, richest, and most powerful Cordial in Nature, is recommended,

BEING the only true and Infallible Cure for Barrenness in Women, and Impotency in Men in the Universe, and which at once accomplishes without the least Trouble, even after all other Remedies have fail'd, as Thousands have experienced, and that by promoting the chearful Curricle of the Blood and Juices, raising all the Fluids from their languid depressed State, to one more florid and sparkling; opening all Obstructions, fortifying the Nerves, encreasing the Animal Spirits, restoring a Juvenile Bloom, and evidently replenishing the crispy Fibres of the whole Habit, with a generous Warmth and balmy Moisture, and thereby invigorating it to such a Degree as not to be imagin'd, but by those who have experienced how exceedingly and suddenly it renovates, recruits and powerfully strengthens all the Animal Faculties and Generative Powers in both Sexes. It inforces a bright lively Disposition banishes Melancholy, and inspires Mirth and Gladness of Heart beyond Expression.

Abundance of Ladies, who for several Years were deem'd incurable Barren, have after twice taking it, conceived and became Fruitful, and great Numbers of Gentlemen, who by fast living or otherwise, had render'd themselves incapable of Procreation, have soon been enabled by it to propagate their Species, insomuch, that very many illustrious Families, who, for want of Children, were almost inconsolable, are now blest with happy Issue, and are (under Providence) indebted to this Great Medicine for their Heirs.

It rectifies all Disorders of the Stomach, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digestion, and in all Weakness of Body, or Decay of Constitution of any Kind, is a most infallible Restorative, and even seems to keep back the Effects of Old Age itself.

It is to be taken but a few Drops at a Time, has a very fine Flavour, is pleasant to the Palate, Cordial to the Stomach, and can be had only at the Gentlewoman's at the Two Blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories at 5s. a Bottle, with Directions.

Obstinate Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure, even by the very best Method and Medicine in equal Practice, than stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Polluted Sui, or any other Cause whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain as that they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorsalis, or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumption which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such therefore who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old stubborn Gleets, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetes, Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe and speedy Cure, which they most assuredly may, by the taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent Balsamick Restrictive Electuary, now published for a general Good, after having for many Years in private Practice been experienced never once to fail of perfectly curing the most stubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as also all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels and Urinary Passages, which it almost instantly cures, bringing to tights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and priftine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent Balsamick Restrictive Electuary is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weaknesses and Decay of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels, to an immense Degree, insomuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigued with Gleets or Seminal Weaknesses of any Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will be most agreeably surprised at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a safe, speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been try'd in vain; too much cannot be said in Praise of it, and this all who ever took it for any of the above-mention'd Purposes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten times, as much, and is ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will be complete Master of his own Case, and perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with succeeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the foul Disease is intirely extirpated or not.

Note, This fam'd Balsamic Electuary is now, by the Author's Appointment, to be had only at Mr. Eglinton's, (Mr. Radford being deceased) at the Golden Pair of Spectacles, against the East-End of the New-Church in the Strand, London. Ask only for a 6s. Pot of Balsamic Electuary. No Letters answer'd, unless Post-paid.
